

Harbinger Group makes it to the Global Top 20

PUNE, JUNE 2006

Pune based eLearning Company Harbinger Group has made it to the top 20 list of Specialized Learning Process Providers brought out by Training Outsourcing.com, a leading analyst in business strategies for learning, based in Cary, North Carolina, USA. The annual list of Top 20 Specialized Learning Process Providers - 2006 was brought out on June 28th. Harbinger has made it to this prestigious global list as a Content Development Tools provider. Other International companies in this Top 20 list include GeoLearning, Knowledge Planet, Hewlett Packard, Hewitt (Admin Services), Thomson Prometric (Assessment and Testing) and Adobe (Content Development Tools), Genpact, IBM Learning solutions, Convergy's.

The 'Top Specialized Learning Process Providers' list includes those companies that are recognized as leaders or 'best in class' in supplying specific learning process services in support of comprehensive training outsourcing service providers or directly to corporate and government clients.

Harbinger Group CMD Vikas Joshi was elated on receiving this recognition - "This accolade underscores the increasing recognition of Harbinger's software products in global e-learning industry. Many of the world's leading corporations and universities have come to rely on Elicitus and Raptivity, Harbinger's award-winning tools for e-learning content creation." He added, "Harbinger will continue its innovation in rapid interactivity technology and consolidate its global leadership in this space".

"Our Top 20 List has become the most accessed resource used by training buyers to identify the leaders in our industry," said Doug Harward, CEO and founder of Training Outsourcing.com. "This year's companies possess innovative and unique capabilities and have demonstrated their ability to add business value through a variety of learning initiatives."

According to Dr. Jim Hanlin, COO of Training Outsourcing.com, "Our primary goal for publishing this prestigious list is to provide corporate, government, and training executives with a directory of highly qualified, successful, and proven training partners."
