PUNE, INDIA; REDMOND, WA, JULY 8, 2016:

Harbinger Systems with RistCall won the SUPERSTAR Award in the ‘Mobile Patient Care Innovation’ category. The RistCall patient care app is an outstanding product innovation in the wearable health space.

“It is a great honor to receive this recognition. The RistCall wearable app has created new possibilities for enhancing patient care at the bedside and improving work-flow efficiencies in healthcare settings,” said Srinath Vaddepally, CEO, RistCall LLC. “We share this moment of pride with our extended team at Harbinger Systems, who demonstrated strong commitment and flexibility to our evolving product idea and brought excellent healthcare domain knowledge in our engagement,” he added.

Harbinger Systems developed the Android wearable patient care app allowing easy communication between nurses and patients by replacing the traditional call-bell system of hospitals, thereby improving patient care.
