

Harbinger Systems to showcase its HR Technology services at SHRM18 Annual Conference and Exposition

Harbinger Systems, a global enterprise providing technology services for product companies, will be exhibiting its services at SHRM 18 Annual Conference and Exposition, to be held from June 17-20, 2018 in Chicago, USA.

PUNE, INDIA; REDMOND, WA, June 15, 2018

Harbinger Systems, preferred technology services partner for many organizations for more than two decades, will be exhibiting its services range at the SHRM18 Annual Conference and Exposition to be held in Chicago - IL, USA. Scheduled from June 17-20, 2018, Harbinger will showcase its offerings at booth #3453 at the event.

Harbinger Systems, works with HR Tech product companies, lending its expertise in technology, and deep domain expertise of over 20 years. Harbinger believes in collaborative product building that meets all market demands and helps enhance an organization's HR activities.

With the increased use of conversational interfaces and chatbots in HR functions, techniques like Machine Learning (ML) and Natural Language Processing (NLP) are sought after by product companies. Chatbots are helping in avenues such as onboarding, recruitment, time-off management, and benefits administration to name a few. Employees are now not only comfortable conversing with chatbots, but, also prefer them; it's easy, fast, and reliable. Chatbots now can automate and handle more than 70% of an HR team's tasks, making it a very valuable tool.

Harbinger Systems has developed conversational interfaces for HR workflows that span across various HR domains. Visitors can view live demonstrations of these chatbots, both text, and voice, frameworks that fit in nicely with various HCM products. Integration is easy, hassle-free, and they produce amazing results.

Details on Harbinger's capabilities and how to book meetings at the conference can be found on the official website.
