

Harbinger wins four Brandon Hall Group awards for “Excellence in Technology”

Harbinger Systems is recognized for its ‘Excellence in Technology’ across HRTech, LearnTech and WorkTech with four prestigious Brandon Hall Group awards for innovative technology solutions built in partnership with their customers.

December 15, 2020

Harbinger Systems, a leading provider of product engineering services to some of the world's best product companies, announced that four of its innovative customer solutions bagged the coveted Brandon Hall Group awards for Excellence in Technology.

This prestigious recognition establishes Harbinger’s excellence in the HR and Learning technology space. Harbinger along with its customers were recognized by Brandon Hall on 10th December 2020, with four awards, including three gold and one silver in the following categories:

- Gold Award for “Best Advance in Emerging Learning Technology” won jointly with TrainUp for its TrainingFlo platform
- Gold Award for “Best Advance in Assessment and Survey Technology” won jointly with SkillSurvey for its Online candidate reference check platform
- Gold Award for “Best Advance in Assessment and Survey Technology” won jointly with Macorva for its Employee Experience Platform
- Silver Award for “Best Advance in Learning Management Technology (LMT)” for the student focused online coaching academy built for eLearnAc

“I am so excited and honored with this esteemed recognition for our innovative engineering services and strong partnerships with our customers. Building technology that impacts and transforms lives has always been at the core of everything we do. This appreciation comes as an acknowledgment of all that we stand for - leveraging technology to build impactful products in HRTech, LearnTech and WorkTech domains”, said Mr. Shrikant Pattathil, President, Harbinger Group.

Brandon Hall Group Excellence in Technology Awards recognize the best organizations that have successfully deployed programs, strategies, modalities, processes, systems, and tools that have achieved measurable results. The awards attract entrants from leading corporations around the world, as well as mid-market and smaller firms.

The award entries were stringently evaluated by a panel of veteran, independent senior industry experts along with Brandon Hall Group’s senior analysts and executives on varying parameters, including product innovation, unique differentiators, the product's ability to solve real-time problems, and overall measurable benefits.

"The Excellence Award in Technology emphasizes the value of collaboration between HCM leaders, business leaders and technology developers. To win, everyone must work together to meet the needs of all the stakeholders, especially the end-users. Technology Award winners met this challenge and created value for everyone", said Brandon Hall Group Chief Executive Officer Mike Cooke.
